Quiz #1

Which of the following statistics is based on the entire population of interest (rather than a representative sample) and how do you know?

a) 87 percent of radiology residents consider mammography to be the most stressful kind of imaging.

b) The death rate for women with breast cancer in Connecticut is lower than for women with breast cancer nationwide.

c) Certified centers offering mammograms dropped from 9,558 to 8,999 according to the FDA.